Sources of Financial Aid and Scholarships:

BST Grant in Aid Scholarships:
BST Grant in Aid Scholarships do not have to be repaid. Scholarships are awarded according to financial need, merit, and funds available. BST GIA Scholarships are available to both domestic and international students who are enrolled at least half-time and maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress. Students must apply annually by submitting a FAFSA and Domestic or International Student Financial Aid Application (see above)

Seminarian Support Program
In addition to tuition aid grants, the American Baptist Home Missions Societies in Valley Forge, PA administers the Seminarian Support Program for American Baptist students who have been members of an American Baptist church for a minimum of one year. Information for this denominational grant can be found at www.abhms.org/education/financial aid/.

On Campus Work Study Jobs
Work-study jobs are another source of financial aid, and a limited number of positions are available on campus. For information regarding work-study positions, please contact the BST Business Office.

VA Yellow Ribbon Program
The BST participates in the VA Yellow Ribbon Program. The seminary has agreed to provide a tuition scholarship of 50% to a maximum of 3 qualifying veterans during the Academic Year.

Students will be considered to receive the Yellow Ribbon Award on a first come first serve basis. Students who are eligible for the Yellow Ribbon program must submit a copy of their Certificate of Eligibility (COE) to the Office of Vice President. The priority deadline is August 1. Students will receive notification from the American Baptist Seminary of the West if they are selected to receive the Yellow Ribbon Award.

Other Scholarships:
Additional information on available scholarships is available through the BST Financial Aid Office and weekly student e-newsletter.

Graduate Theological Union Scholarships Newsletter

GTU Scholarship Database